

BRYANT B. SMICK

(206) 607-4179
smick@carneylaw.com

Bryant joined Carney Badley Spellman in 2018. His practice focuses on startups, emerging growth companies, angel and venture financings, mergers and acquisitions, securities, and general corporate matters. Bryant has advised numerous companies across a diverse range of industries, including SaaS, cloud services, hardware, consumer products, revenue-based financing, and private equity/venture capital.

Prior to joining Carney Badley Spellman, Bryant worked as in-house counsel at an investment bank and a publicly traded private equity firm.

Education

JD, Seattle University School of Law, 2016

MBA, Albers School of Business, Seattle University 2016

BA, Washington State University

Bar and Court Admissions

State of Washington

Professional Associations

Seattle Aquarium Auxiliary Board

Washington State Bar Association

King County Bar Association

Representative Transactions

Heard Technologies, Inc. Series Seed

WeFunder Disaster Loan

AppViewX Series A Financing

Vendorhawk acquisition by ServiceNow

VR Studios Series B Financing

ioCurrents Series A Financing

Haiku Deck acquisition by Bookrags

Mediarails acquisition by Impact Radius

TinySeed 2019 cohort investments

Earnest Capital Subscription “Rolling” Fund and SEAL Instrument

D4 Investments lead investment in Elevat Series Seed

Stormsensor Series Seed

Chisos LLC – Convertible Income Share Agreement \(CISA\)

Tidal Vision Products Series A

Barnacle Foods strategic investment by Sealaska

Publications

- Rolling Funds \(aka Subscription Funds\) – What They Are and Why Venture Capital Should Care, The Startup Blog
- Where Should I Incorporate my Startup? The Startup Blog
- More Notes, More Problems: Musing on Convertible Notes and SAFEs, The Startup Blog

Featured News

- Rolling Funds and Syndicates, How They Work, Crunchbase